CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

I, the complainant in this case, state that the following is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

On or about the date(s) of OCTOBER 27, 2016 in the county of MORTON in the District of NORTH DAKOTA, the defendant(s) violated:

Code Section	Offense Description
18 U.S.C. §§ 2, 231(a)(3), and 844(h)	ONE: committing or attempting to commit any act to obstruct, impede, and interfere with any law enforcement officer lawfully engaged in the lawful performance of his official duties incident to and during the commission of a civil disorder which in any way or degree obstructed, delayed, and adversely affected commerce. TWO: knowingly used fire to commit civil disorder, a felony prosecutable in a court of the United States, as set forth in Count One, the descriptions of which are hereby incorporated by reference.

This criminal complaint is based on these facts:
